Our new Youth Advisory Teams held their first meetings at the end of October, sharing ideas for library collections, spaces, and summer programming. November's take 'n make activity is a Gratitude Take 'n Make Buffet, where patrons can customize their projects by choosing from a variety of options. We've also introduced a new monthly program called This or That?, inviting patrons to weigh in on a fun question each month, either at the library or on Facebook. Participation so far has been positive. Our Barn Quilts and Brushstrokes program is scheduled for Saturday, November 21, at 10:00 am.
