- Cemetery update: a resident is would like to donate time and materials to update the pillars in the cemetery, they do have proof of insurance, would also straighten head stones for families that are no longer around, consensus of board is to wait until next spring to discuss
 - Review/Update Cemetery Regulations: MOTION (Scheunemann, Bouma) to add to the cemetery regulations to have no spreading of ashes they can only be placed in there in a burial. Carried 3-0
- Library update The October Crafty Crow Take 'n Make kits have been well received, with the majority of kits being picked up within the first week of the month, demonstrating continued patron interest in these offerings. The library will participate in a Trunk or Treat on Sunday, October 25, from 2:00–4:00 p.m. at St. John Lutheran Church in Auburndale. Preparations are underway, and staff are currently working on the library's themed entry for the event. Looking ahead to November, the library is developing plans for a Barn Quilt and Brushstrokes program, featuring wooden barn quilt blanks for participants to paint. November will also feature a Gratitude Take 'n Make buffet, offering patrons another opportunity to enjoy a creative, seasonal activity at home. The TV Series project is nearly complete. All television series in the library's collection are now circulating as complete seasons, making it easier for patrons to check out and enjoy an entire season at a time. New shelving for the expanded children's graphic novel and adult fiction collections is anticipated to arrive in mid-December. Once installation is complete, the existing DVD shelving will be retrofitted to accommodate both the DVD and TV series collections. Following these changes, the paperback collection will undergo substantial weeding to improve the collection's overall condition and relevance.
